Dedication

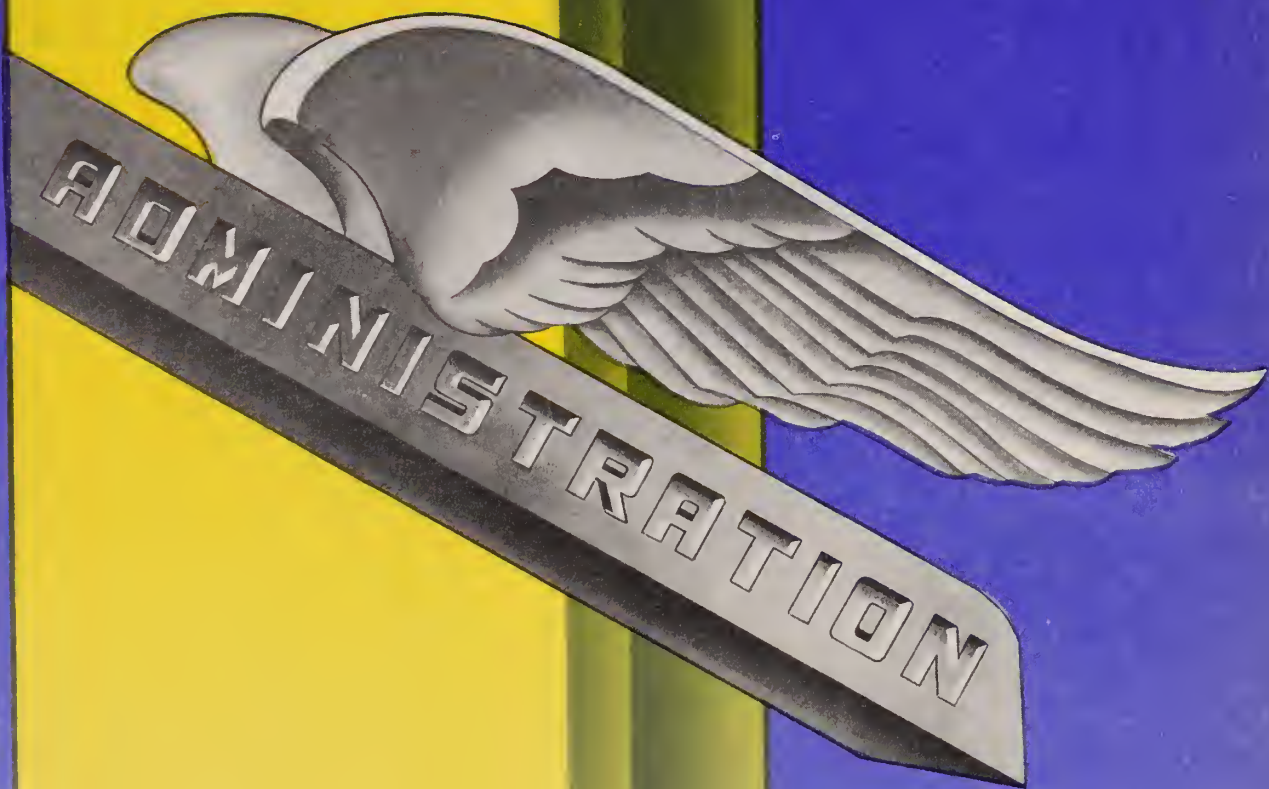

Miss Alice Elizabeth Ferrell was the Senior sponsor in our high school last year. She taught English and Spanish. In addition to teaching, she was very active in other school activities. She directed the Senior play, was our efficient librarian, and was the leader in organizing and planning the first issue of the Clahischo.

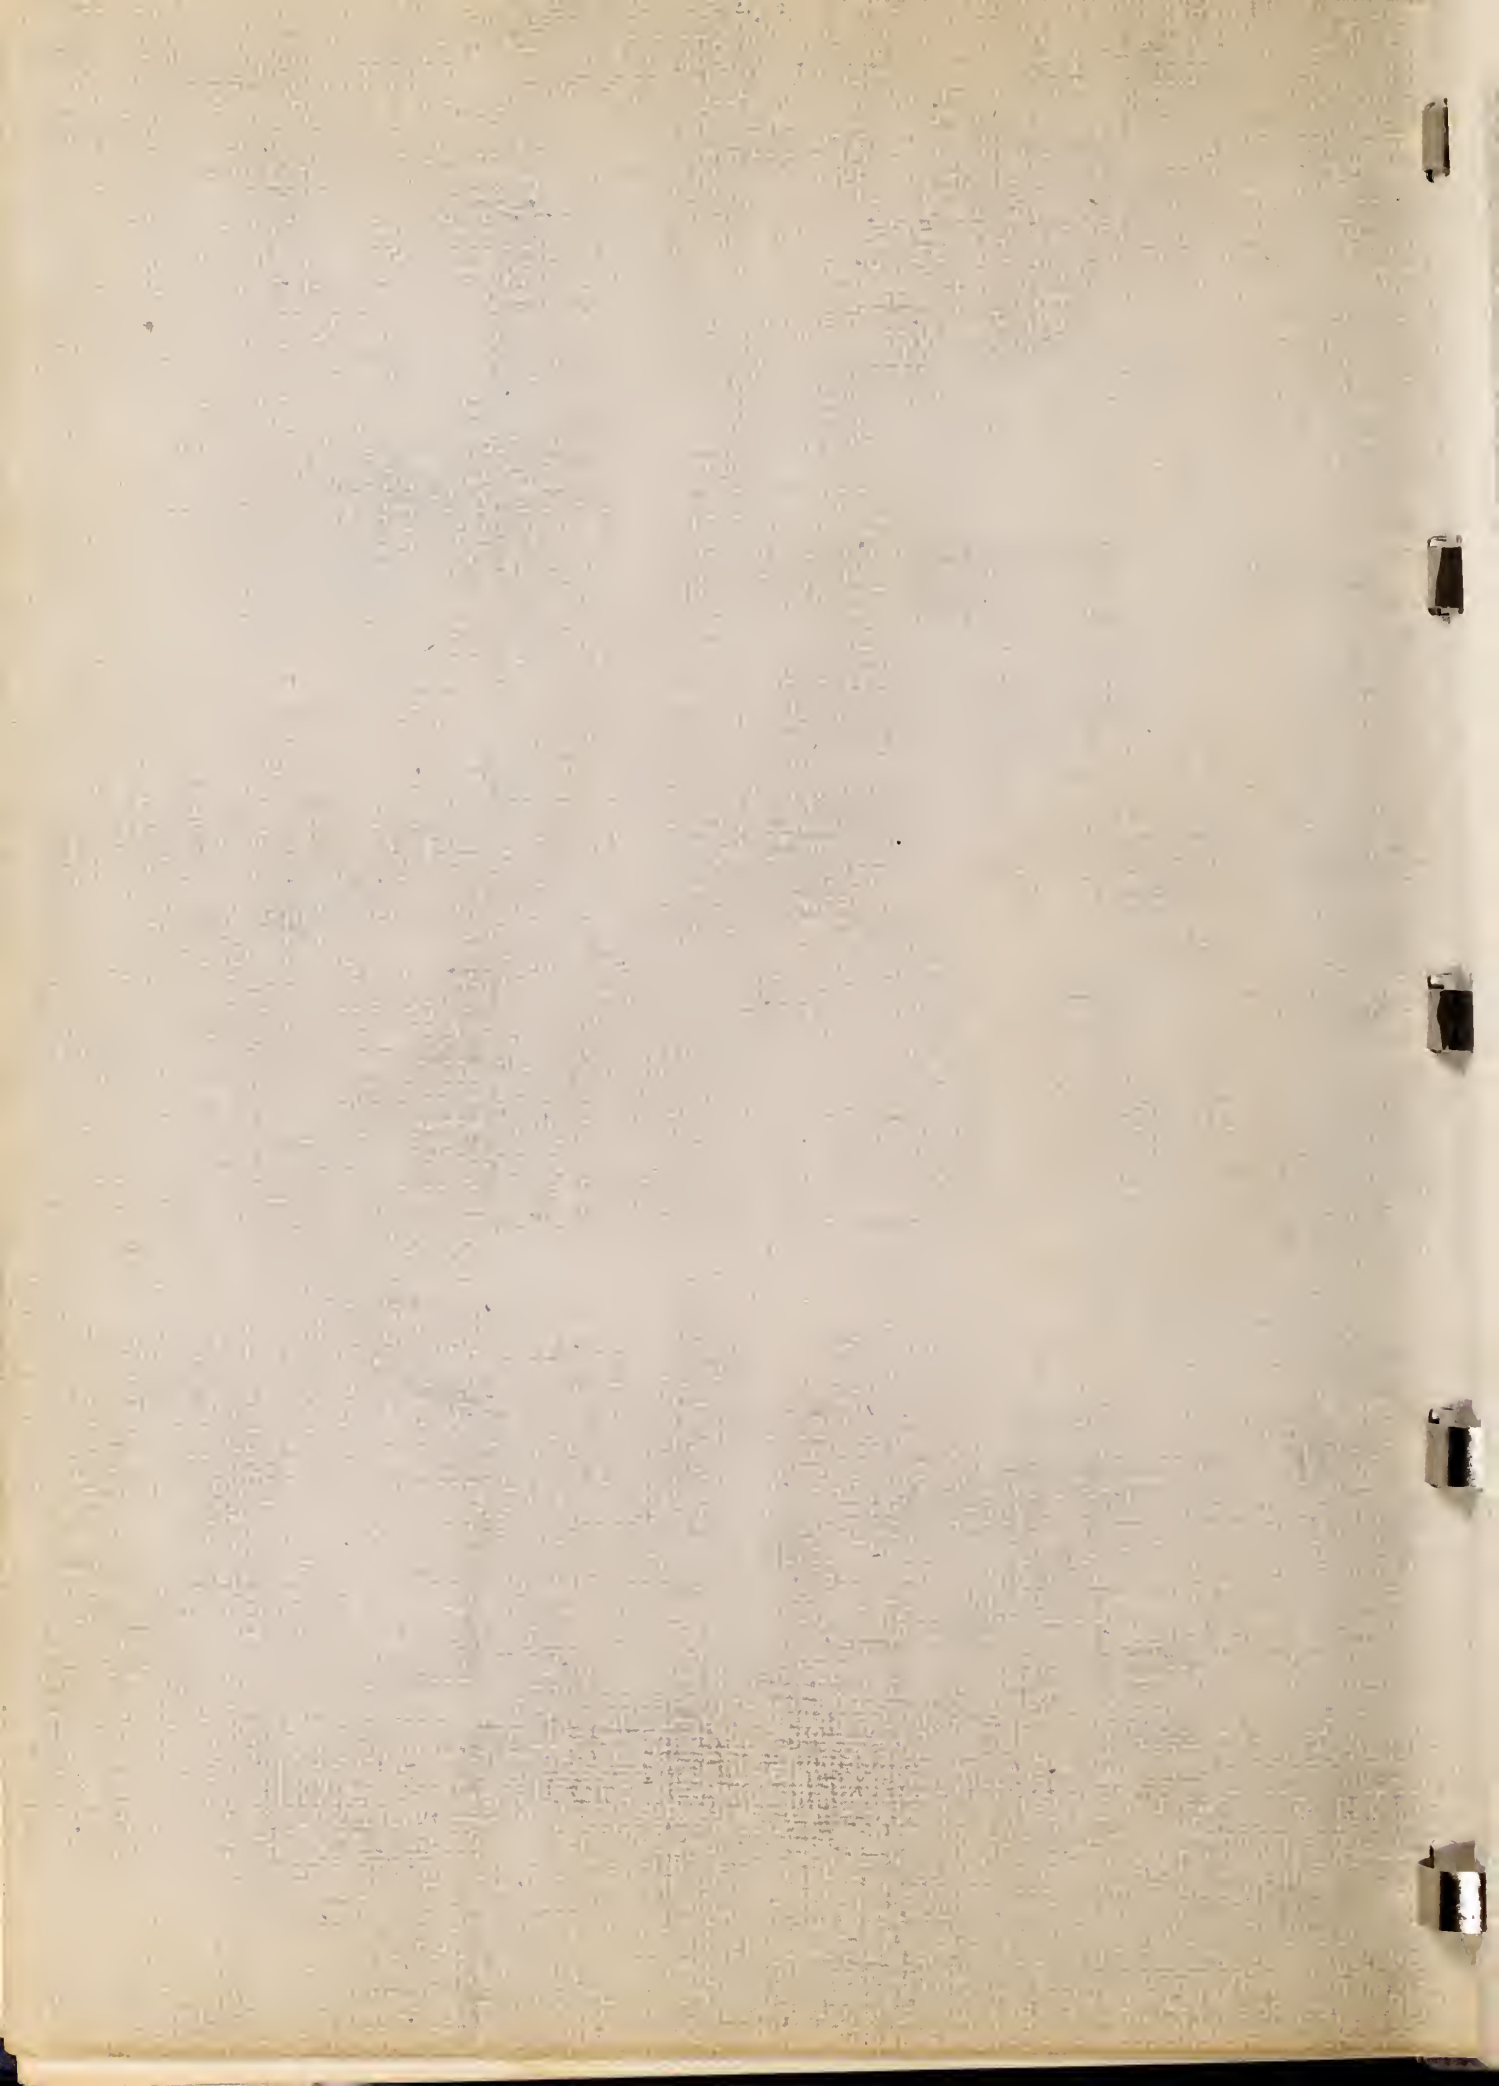

It was her work on the annual that we value most highly. Her complete knowledge and work in this phase helped make the annual a lasting tradition in Clayton High history.

Not only did she show her interest to the Seniors, but also in others who went to her in need. She always stood willing and ready to help.

This year the Seniors would like to dedicate the Second Volume of the annual to one of our beloved teachers, Miss Alice Elizabeth Ferrell.

Memories

TO OUR SCHOOL AND FRIENDS

Fond memories dwell within our hearts
Of happy days we spent with you.
We'll remember you though we depart,
And high school days now are through.

Though we are gone, you'll still remain;
Guide your youth throughout the years.
May they always bring you greater fame,
And honor as they sing your cheers.

We'll always hold in memory too,
The students who will take our place.
To the Juniors loyal and true,
We wish success, as the years you face.

Good luck to you, we wish sincerely,
As you face the problems that lie ahead.
As teachers you've made the way more clear,
As friends you've brightened the lives
we've led.

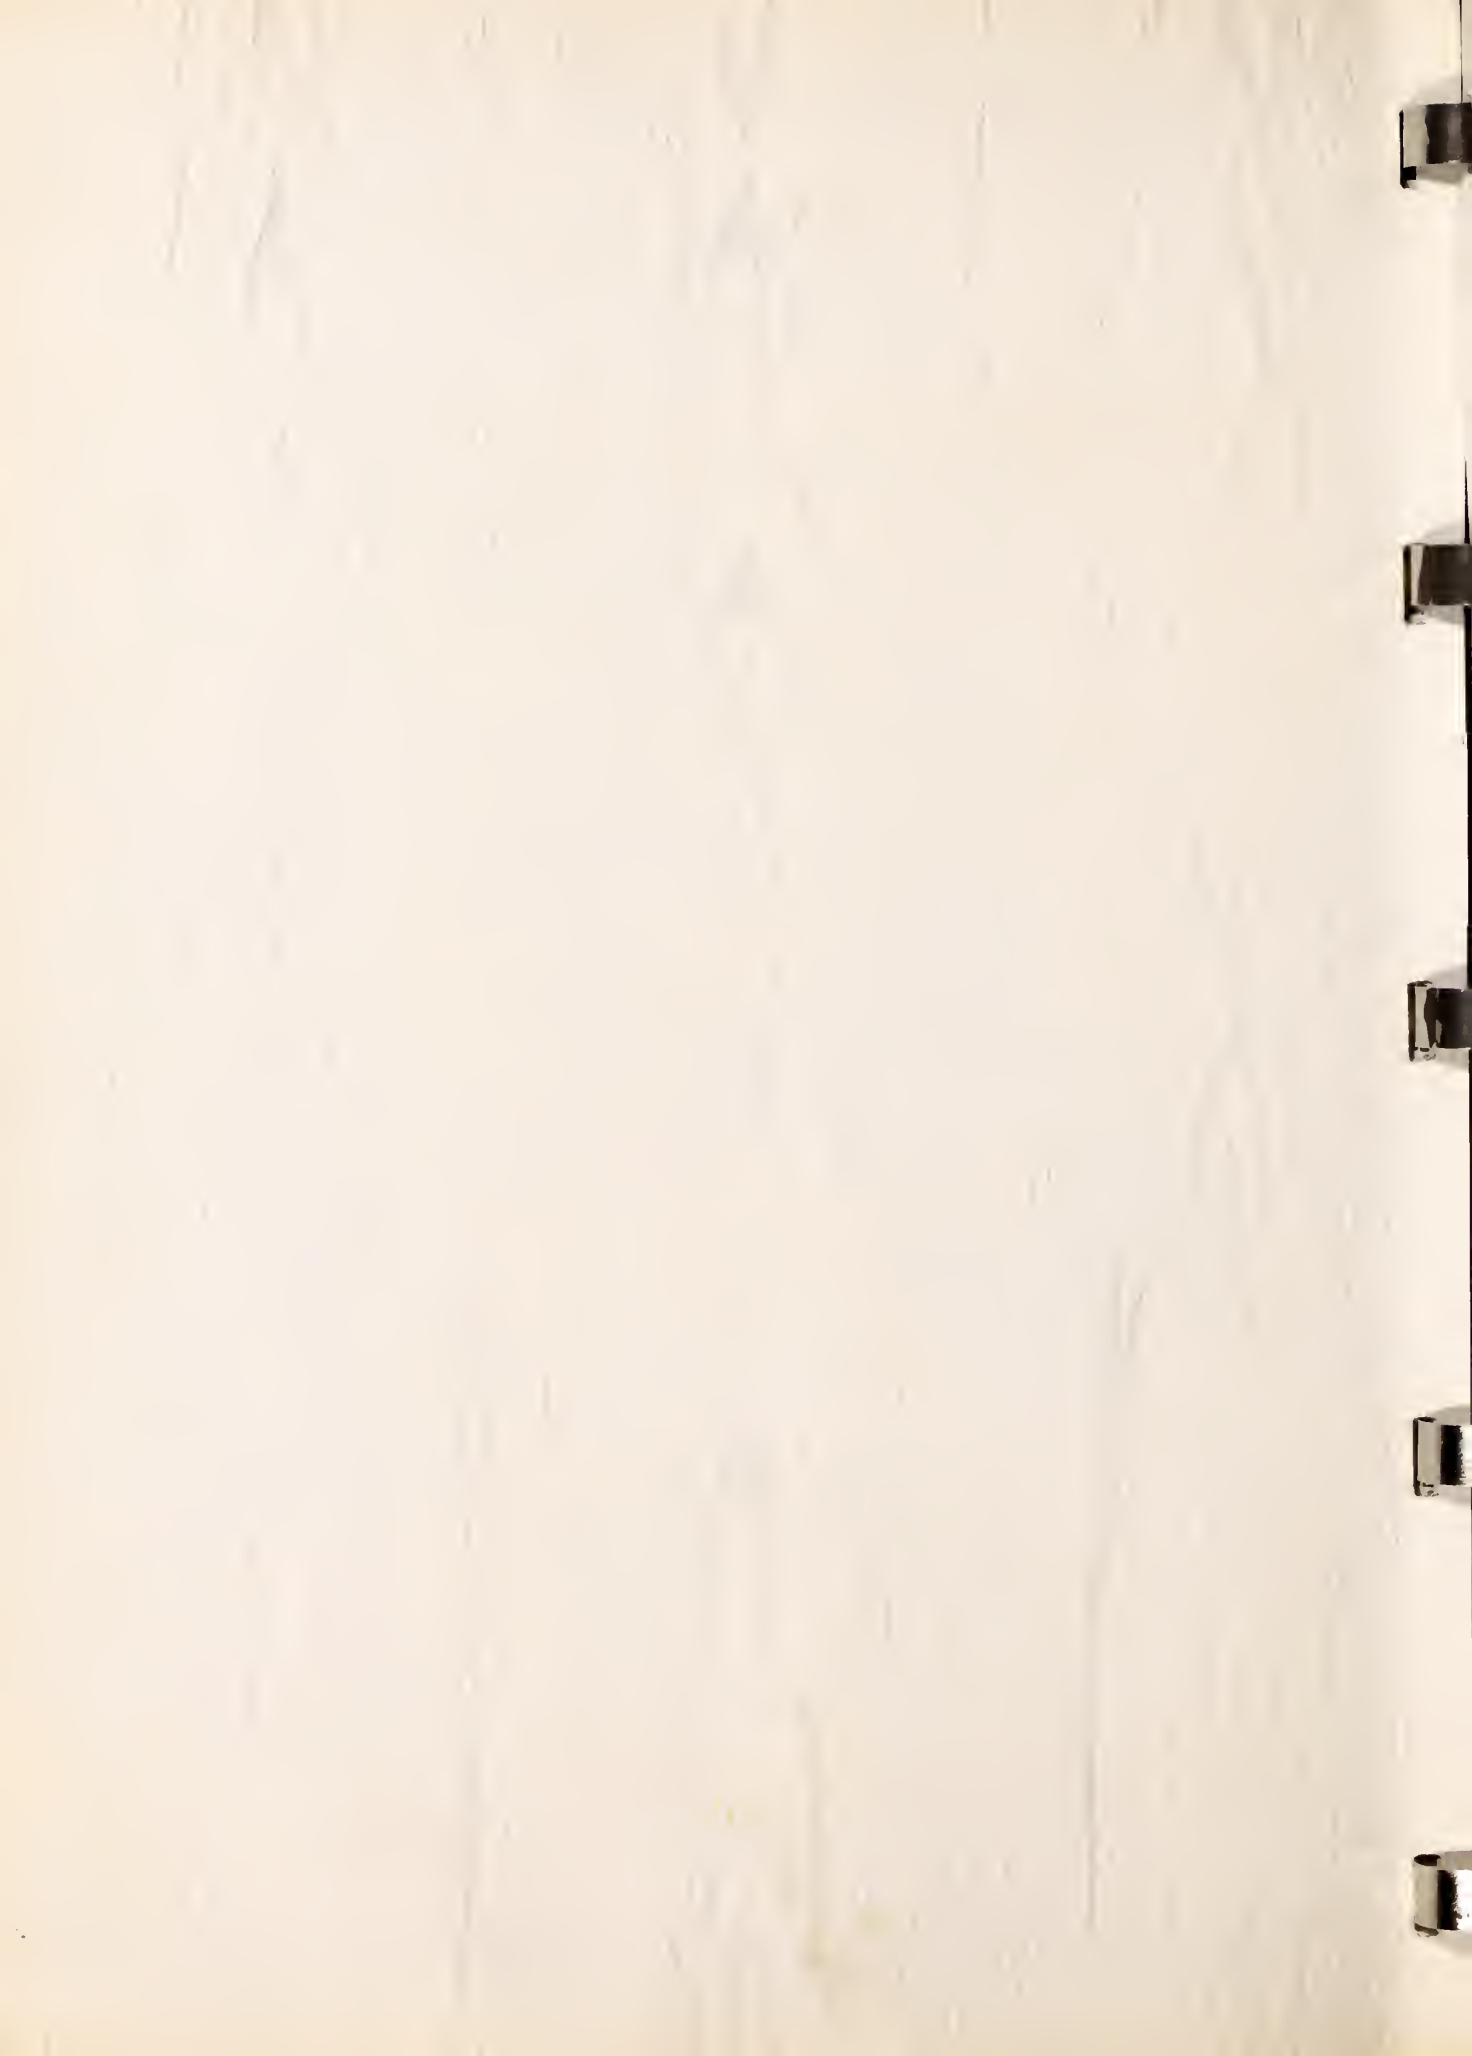

So now the time to depart is here,
The time that does of sadness tell.
To our teachers, school, and friends
so dear,
With heavy hearts we bid farewell.

Durwood Dean

Class Poet

CLAYTON ALMA MATER

Clayton High our Alma Mater
Thy glorious name we praise.
Our faithful sons and daughters
Thy glorious songs shall raise.
While knowledge here is growing,
And seeds for life we're sowing,
Shine forth thy noble walls of old
With love our hearts enfold.
Neath blue and white victorious
Our love shall never fail.
There's no other name so glorious,
All hail! Clayton High Hail!

Class History

To relate in detail the History of the Class of 1949, would be to write a long, long book. Indeed our career through both high school and grammar school has been marked by various accomplishments, as well as by various defeats; but through it all we come, smiling at the thoughts of our success, sad at the thought of farewell.

The year 1937 found a group of frightened youngsters entering the first grade with Miss Gulley and Miss Swain as the first teachers to have to cope with our first days in school. We still hold hearty appreciation for the thoughtfulness and patience of these first teachers, as well as all our other teachers, friends and parents who did so much in setting our sails for a long voyage in life--twelve years. We might not have shown our appreciation, sometimes, however, as would occasionally play a prank. But as the old saying goes--kids will be kids.

Finally in the fall of 1945, a happy-go-lucky band of "nonchalant" boys and girls entered Clayton High School. All were thrilled at the idea of being in High School, although we proved to be very "green". Before we became accustomed to the schedule, some might have been absent from class half the period and show up saying he had gone to the wrong class. Nevertheless, when the year came to an end, we were getting somewhere, as we approached the second rung of our High School Ladder. Two new members joined our class the freshmen year, Geraldine Johnson and Josephine Harrison.

The class of 1946 found us Sophomores, but the class proved to be much smaller, as some had unfortunately been left behind. Thinking we were experienced proved different, when the dignified Seniors were around. All yearned for the day when we, ourselves, would be Seniors. Our instructors this year were Miss Hollowell, Mr. Crutchfield, Miss Spears and Miss Powell. Important events that happened in the tenth grade were the carrying of the rose arbor during the commencement and the entertaining of the Seniors in the spring. Oh, would the day ever come when we should march down the aisle!

Miss Layton was our Junior teacher. Other teachers were Miss Ferrell, Mr. Crutchfield and Miss Spears. The work had become more difficult now. Latin proved to be too hard for some of the students and the number on roll dropped down to seven. Miss Spears taught the girls how to cook and sew, while Mr. Crutchfield did his best to teach us Math.

Our Junior play "Ready Made Family" was presented this year with Miss Layton as supervisor. The result was a big success. One notable event of this year's activities and one which is a pleasant memory was the Junior-Senior Banquet given May 17, 1948 at the Club House. The marshalls were chosen from this class, Barbara Goodman being chief. We suffered a great loss when she moved to California at the close of the year. Two other girls found themselves husbands and also another married at the first of the next term. Activities of every sort crowded this year and it sped by all too swiftly.

Finally came that day of days for which we had strived three (or four) long, long years--the day on which we were officially called Seniors--wise, experienced, dignified Seniors! On this, the last rung of our ladder, was added to our class Myrtle Edwards. For our home room teacher we had Miss Aileen Reel. Others on the faculty were Miss Godley, Mrs. Young, Miss Majette, Mr. Crutchfield and Mr. Welch. Our number on roll had decreased to eighteen from approximately forty or forty-five during our younger high school days. This year every activity in which Seniors have participated seemed to really blossom forth and be very worthwhile. The Senior play, "Bolts and Nuts" was a "big hit". We have planned to go to Washington since our Junior year and have had many joys in collecting our money.

Thus, through tears, through laughter, through fears, through joy, through work, through play, we have reached the top of the ladder; and as we, the Senior Class of 1949, understand our endeavors, we have achieved the pinnacle of success!

To Mr. Welch, we express our gratitude in helping us through Clayton School and also wish other students who attend this dear school, success in the future.

Class Prophecy

It is my accepted privilege to look into the future and see what it holds in store for the Seniors of 1949.

As I look ahead, I see, lying on a hospital bed after having a tragic accident with his transfer truck, Jeff Ferrell. However, I think he is very lucky as I see his private nurse, Myrtle Edwards, hurry through the door.

Ah, yes, now I can see the perfect father, Charles Morgan, keeping watch over his six children, while his sweet little wife, Barbara Rogers, teaches school.

For lots of entertainment, just tune in the Grand Old Opry every Saturday Night and hear the Melody Boys, Durwood Dean and Jodie Wheeler, harmonize on a few songs.

What a hand for travel! Magellan didn't go half the distance Faye Corbett will go before she writes her "Best Seller" entitled "Travels Without a Donkey."

What a strange line this is! Can it really be evidence that Betty Sue Harrison wants to be a detective? Her love for publicity should influence her to apply at the FBI office in Washington.

Here is a line that isn't very clear, but as far as I can see it says David Langdon will join many others in flying lessons. Perhaps he may become a pilot for the Naval Air Force.

What's this I see as I look in on Lawyer Jerry Gulley! It seems it's his "pretty secretary, Geraldine Johnson, sitting on the boss's knee." This doesn't seem possible, as she was so bashful at school.

And who do we have talking up sales to John Jones, our store manager, but Lawrence Williams. Let's hope Lawrence can make him listen now for he never did in class.

Now we look around in a neat little farm house and see Dorothy Worley washing the dishes after her big family of Adamases has eaten.

Often we see a distinguished gentleman go into the Raleigh Times Office but always late. He is none other than the editor, Charles Wall.

As now I look on, I see one who has a long life and signs of great services to his state. In 1954 Rudolph Tart will be the most famous surgeon in North Carolina.

Now we see the second Mr. Welch at Clayton High School. Let's hope Weisner Farmer Jr. forgets the demerit system in years to come.

As for our school we can see nothing but more students getting their education with which to live a more prosperous life.

Clayton High School
June 6, 1949

We, the Seniors of Clayton High School consider it our great privilege to leave behind us for the benefit of certain not quite so gifted and fortunate as we, a few of our many values, talents and accomplishments. We, on this six day of June in the year of 1949, do herewith make public our Last Will and Testament.

Article I

We, the Seniors, leave to the faculty our quietness, well disciplined classes, dignity, and good manners for you to distribute among the many needy students of Clayton High School, so that next year will be a model school year for you.

Article II

- Section 1. To the Juniors we bequeath our spirit of cooperation and ability to make brilliant decisions of their problems.
- Section 2. To the Sophomores we bequeath our classroom full of seats in hopes that they may fill them in 1951.
- Section 3. To the Freshmen we bequeath our scholastic ability and our intense interest in our studies as "Model Seniors".
- Section 4. To the student body we bequeath our annual as a remembrance of your happy school days to be enjoyed for years to come.

Article III

- Section 1. Durwood Dean bequeaths his ability to sing cowboy songs to Herman Vinson.
- Section 2. Faye Corbett bequeaths some of her pounds to Frank Jones.
- Section 3. David Langdon bequeaths his capacity to work math to Braxine Truelove.
- Section 4. Dorothy Worley bequeaths her love for housekeeping to Betsy Canady.
- Section 5. John Jones bequeaths his ability to get along with the teachers to Clifton Bagley.
- Section 6. Jodie Wheeler bequeaths his quiet ways to Troy Page, Jr.
- Section 7. Lawrence Williams bequeaths one ounce of energy to Elizabeth King.
- Section 8. Jerry Gulley bequeaths his dancing capacity to Betsy Ragland.
- Section 9. Myrtle Edwards bequeaths her ability to learn to Winnie Bradley.
- Section 10. Geraldine Johnson bequeaths her ability to play softball to Gloria Sherry.
- Section 11. Jeff Ferrell bequeaths his love-making tactics and his horse laugh to Gilliam Underwood.
- Section 12. Betty Sue Harrison bequeaths her flaming red curls to Faye Gulley providing she rolls them up every night.
- Section 13. Weisner Farmer bequeaths his bookkeeping papers to Leonard Moore.
- Section 14. Charles Wall bequeaths his ability to get to school on time to Rex Lee.
- Section 15. Barbara Rogers bequeaths her old boy friends to Marjorie Ford.
- Section 16. Josephine Harrison bequeaths nothing to no one because she feels she needs everything she has.
- Section 17. Charles Morgan bequeaths his bus and route to Whit Bain.
- Section 18. Rudolph Tart bequeaths his corny jokes to Julia Ann Knott with hopes that she will have a chance to use them often.

BOLTS and NUTS

"Why he's mad, Dr. Joy! Stop him!"

"Why he's a cute little duffer, isn't he?"

The Senior Class, on December 17, 1948, presented their play, "Bolts and Nuts", a three-act comedy, which was a great success. Above are two scenes of the play.

We appreciate the effort and time our director, Miss Aileen Reel, put forth on our play.

BLUE COMETS

This year Clayton High's Blue Comets enjoyed their best season in several years. The boys won twenty-two games and lost only two. The Clayton team was entered in the Class B State Championship finals to represent Johnston County. By defeating three teams; Wilton, Baily, and Bethel they were able to go to Durham to compete for the Class B State Championship. Clayton played Trinity.

The high scorers for the year were Bobby Poole and Jerry Gulley with 272 and 258 points respectively. These boys were also elected on the all county team.
